

Features and Benefits of Membership in the San Diego Flower & Plant Association

- *Membership Listing in the Annual Directory & Buyers Guide
- *Website Benefits: Links with members and buyers worldwide, the ability to link your webpage with the San Diego County Flower & Plant Association
- *Educational Benefits: Regular educational seminars designed to keep members informed about relevant political, environmental, and labor related topics
- *Social Events: The association sponsors 5 event each year which bring members together in a social setting allowing the sharing of mutual industry concerns and topics
- *Connections with the Academic World: Sponsors horticultural related scholarships and strives to attract today's youth to consider a career in our industry
- *Government Liaison: Represents you and your concerns with the Cooperative Extension branch of the University of California, the San Diego County Farm Bureau, Dept. of Food & *Agricultural to make sure your concerns are heard
- *Membership will provide access to the opportunity of product discounts from other members